

2019 ALBERS HUMANITIES FESTIVAL

POST APOCALYPSE NOW

THURSDAY, APRIL 11 Murphy Hall, Thompson Auditorium, 155

4 p.m. PANEL
"After the End: Generation Z Takes on World War Z and Other Dystopian and Post-Apocalyptic Worlds"
DSU students Colton Damjanovich, Dylan Gonser, Suzanna Moberg, and Logan Wagoner

THURSDAY, APRIL 11 Murphy Hall, Thompson Auditorium, 155

7 p.m. PANEL
"It Can Happen Here"
Discussion with local first responders

FRIDAY, APRIL 12 Murphy Hall, Thompson Auditorium, 155

4 p.m. KEYNOTE PRESENTATION
"The Value of 'Thinking Horror': Reflection and Contemplation within Dark Fiction"
Dr. Gavin Hurley, University of Providence

FRIDAY, APRIL 12 Murphy Hall, Thompson Auditorium, 155

7 p.m. CONTEST & FILM
"Dress to Stay(in') Alive" and "Dead Still Walking"
Costume contest followed by a screening of the 1968 classic and original zombie flick, Night of the Living Dead. Come as a group or as a lone survivor from your favorite post apocalyptic, dystopian, and/or zombie movie, TV show, game, and/or book. Costumes will be judged on creativity, authenticity, and aesthetics. Members of the Albers Committee and audience will serve as judges.

